The Machinists' Strike.

Nonunion machinists continue to be employed to take the places of the strik-ers in the shops of the Southern Railway at different points on the line of that road. The machinists are still hopeful of effecting a settlement of the strike, The impression seems to prevail among the machinists that negotiations to effect a settlement, which were declared off when the strikers' committee refused to accept a proposition to arbitrate, will be reopened in the near future.

Advices from the various towns along the route of the Southern Railway indi-cate that the strike among the workmen of that ompany is increasing.

The strike among the machinists at Knoxville, Tenn., is said to be spreading. When the news of the failure of an agreement had been received, ten foremen who had remained in the shops walked out, refusing to work under the present conditions.

It is reported that a number of boilermakers in the boiler shops at several places have quit work. It is also said that the strike may spread to all the other departments.

There was no change in the situation in this city this morning. The machin-ists formerly employed by the company ists formerly employed by the company in Alexandria are still out, and no other men have taken their places.

President James O'Connell, of the International Association of Machinists, left Washington today for New York where he will, confer with President Spencer, of the Southern Gailway, on a proposition to settle the atrike of the mechinists on the Southern. There are, 800 machinists out, seeking an increase of 2 cents per hour. The scrikers are being given from $10 to $12 per week from the internation. I association.

Circuit Court for the County. [Judge C. E. N'col presiding.]

The action of Mayor Hawxhurst, of East Falls Church, in im, osing a fine of $10, together with costs, u on Barbara Pope, colored, on the charge of violat-Pope, colored, on the charge of violating the "jim crow" law, was co affirmed yesterday afternoon after a trial which had lasted part of two days. Counsel for the defense noted an appeal. It is understood that the matter will be taken to the higher courts with a view of testing the constitutionality of the law. It is said that the woman is backed by an organization of colored people, who are endeavoring to get a decision from the United States Supreme Court as to the constitutionality of the jim crow law.

On behalf of Charlotte L. Drain, Attorney J. E. Clements yesterday after-noon made a motion before Judge Nicol for an injunction to restrain Frank Lyon and Will W. Douglass, trustees, from selling a piece of property under a deed of trust. Attorney R. W. Moore, for the trustees, opposed the motion, and it was finally agreed to let the legal advertisement, offering the property for sale, remain standing for thirty days, at the expiration of which time the sale will be made for the beneficiaries if the money

In the evidence before the Police Court this morning it was shown that Donnell usually carried a night delivered the weapon to the proprietor of a saloon in the northeastern section of the city who kept it until the next morning. It was also shown that he had threatened to kill Elzey. Donnell had no weapon on his person when arrested. He said he was from Manas-The accused was dismissed with the understanding that he would leave the city within half an hour, or be sent to the chain gang for sixty days. The saloonkeeper was ordered to turn the pistol over to the authorities. The Leys woman, by her own testimony, showed that she is a vagrant, and was sent to jail for 60 days. Negro spectators of the proceedings of the Police Court have been scarce recently, as Justice Caton has announced his intention of bringing such pefore the bar. A few of this class had the temerity to get on the stairs leading up to the court room this moraing. When the sentence was pronounced on Bessie Keys, the would-be spectators, only the heads of whom were visible, disappeared instantly.

The Offering of Rewards.

Considerable debate occurred in both branches of the City Council last night over the resolution to offer a reward for the arrest of the murderer of Mr. C. T. Smith. In the Common Council the chairman held that Council had the authority to offer a reward but was no aware of the limitation. In the Alder-men Mr. Simpson stated that under the law only a reward of $100 could be offered. He was right. The following is the law: Chapter 25, acts 1906, page 18: Sec. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia: And when a felony has been committed, or attempted to be committed, in any county, city or town of this State, the board of supervisors of said county, or the Council of said city or town, where said offense is committed may, in their discretion offer such a reward as they think right, not to exceed one hundred dollars, for the arrest and conviction of said criminal. Said reward to be paid out of the county levy, or the contingent fund of the city or town when duly approved and ordered to be paid.

Opera House.

The entertsinment given last night by the Moore-Simonds Company at the Opera House for the benefit of the Columbia Steam Fire Engine Co. was of an unusually interesting nature and was pronounced a rare treat. About 5,000 yards of picture film were used and the pictures were interesting and enjoyable.
Mr. Tom Moore sang several topical songs, which were illustrated by a num-ber of beautifully colored slides. Mr. Moore has a baritone voice of wide range and he was heartily applauded. The Metropolitan Male Quartet, of Washington, made a decided hit with their beautiful singing and were compelled to respond to six encores. The entertainment is the best of the kind ever seen in this city and it will be repeated again tonight with new pictures, new songs and new Excited Woman Suffragists.

London, Oct. 24.—Seldom if ever in the history of London's police courts have such scenes been ensected as those witnessed today in the arraignment of the woman suffragists arrested yester-day for creating a disturbance in the lobby of the House of Commons where they tried to force their way to button-

Richmond this evening to attend the meeting of the Grand Commandery.

Mr. William B. Mauphin and Miss Myrtle V. Hackney were married at 7.30 o'clock Monday night at Christ Church rectory by Rev. Mr. Morton. Miss Hackney were a tailored suit of light gray broadcloth with hat to match and carried a shower bouquet of bride roses. The bride was tendered a reception at the

the peace for six months, but the determined women declined to give bonds, saying they preferred to go to jail.

Many sympathizers in the court room loudly expressed approval of every utterance of the prisoners and tried repeatedly to create an uproar. The judge kept them quiet with difficulty until the hearing was finished. hearing was finished.

Then the real iun began. Several of the women refused to leave the room where the hearing was held despite the orders of the police. So the officer in charge left them inside locking the doors. Other suffragists attacked the policeman and took the kevs from him.

The women released their companious then seized the policeman and threw bodily into the court room and him turned the keys on him, marching off in triumph.

Several other officers gave chase to the omen, but it was only after a hard hand to band struggle that they were able to ecapture the key.

Outside the court house fully 2,000 ersons had collected, to see what would happen to the suffragists. The women started to harangue this crowd from the West Connell, colored, arrested by Officers Nicholson and Bettis charged with using abusive language toward Elbudge and the petticoat orators were thrown bodily into the crowd. Reserves were then called out and the whole crowd was driven away.

Several of the policemen suffered greatly in the struggle with the women, who fought and bit and kicked the officers. Torn uniforms and bleeding face where the finger nails of the suffragiste had left traces of their effectiveness were the rule among the officers in charge in the court room. Sentence of two months imprisonment was passed on the agita-tors for their refusal to give bond to keep the peace. When this sentence was pronounced women in the room shouted "shame." It was in trying to silence them that the policemen met with such rough treatment.

Mother Smothers Babes. New York, Oct. 24.-Frenzied by the thought that she is responsible for the death of her two babes, who were suffo-cated during the night while sleeping with her, Mrs. John McElroy is today prostrated with grief. No blame is atprostrated with grief. No blame is at-tached to the woman, but her own re-morse is worse than any punishment that could be inflicted upon her. Passenger Train Wrecked.

Pittsburg, Pa., Oct. 24 —A passenger train was wrecked on the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroad at Jacks Run, a few miles below Allegheny, at 12:25 o'clock this afternoon. The wreck is about 300 yards below Bellevue station. The Cleveland "Flyer" jump-ed the tracks and the engines rolled into the Ohio river, and the coaches are off the track. Later dispatches from the scene of the wreck state that no one was killed, but four persons are seriously in-
